

DRUMMOND INFORMS YOU

Special Edition

Work Done by Alfredo Araujo Castro is Recognized During Several Ceremonies in the Department of Cesar

Governor Francisco Ovalle Angarita presenting a recognition to Alfredo Araujo Castro*

During the Department of Cesar's 50 year celebration, in December 2017, Drummond Ltd.'s Community Relations Manager, Alfredo Araujo Castro, was recognized for his positive contributions to the department.

The Governor of Cesar, Francisco Ovalle Angarita, who by decree 000299 paid tribute to the work done by former governors. Alfredo Araujo Castro, Community Relations Manager for Drummond Ltd., was honored in this speech, as he held the Interim Governor position from February 13, 1989 to April 13, 1989. This recognition highlights the work and commitment to our communities, for which the department has gained national recognition.

Special recognition to former Governors that have been an important part of the development and history of the Department of Cesar in its 50 years.*

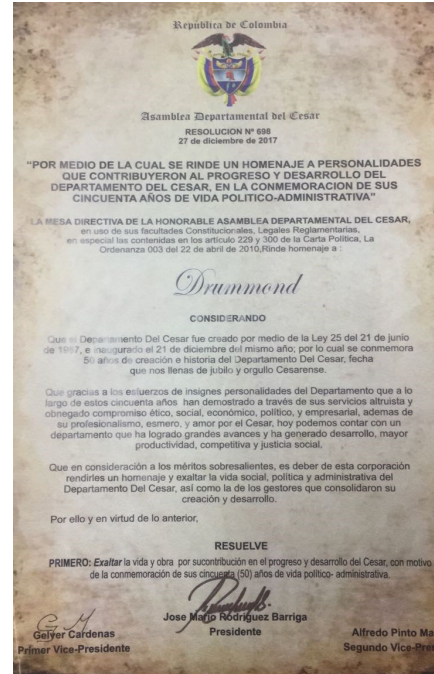

Cesar’s Departmental Assembly joins in paying tribute to Drummond Ltd. and Alfredo Araujo

In commemoration of the fifty year celebration of the Department of Cesar, the Departmental Assembly also recognized Drummond Ltd., and its spokesperson, Alfredo Araujo Castro, Community Relations Manager, for their commitment to local progress through social services, which has generated development and greater regional and national productivity.

“Thank you to the Departmental Assembly for highlighting the work and contribution made by Drummond Ltd., to the development of the Department of Cesar’s territory”.

Alfredo Araújo Castro

Municipal Council of El Paso also joined in the commemorations

On December 26, the municipal council of El Paso, Cesar, paid tribute to Alfredo Araujo Castro, Community Relations Manager for Drummond Ltd., for his commitment to social and cultural development in the mining region.

Alfredo Araujo expressed his gratitude for this recognition and declared his great respect and appreciation for this municipality, which is an important source for national development.

For Drummond Ltd., it is an honor to have great employees, such as Alfredo, who are committed to the future, not only of the region, but also the country.

